EXPLANATORY NOTES FOR COMPLETING A NOTICE OF OBJECTION REGARDING REGISTRATION FOR FUNCTIONAL CONSTITUENCIES / ELECTION COMMITTEE SUBSECTORS

1. If you consider that:

- (a) a registered person (i.e. individual or body whose particulars are recorded in the functional constituencies provisional register or the subsector provisional register) is not eligible to be registered:
 - (i) as an elector, a voter or an authorized representative; or
 - (ii) in the part (i.e. the functional constituency or subsector) in which that individual / body's particulars are recorded; or
- (b) a person who has been registered as an authorized representative has been wrongly so registered, you should use this Notice of Objection lodging an objection [section 30(1) of Cap. 541B].

2. A separate Notice of Objection in the specified form must be used for each individual / body being objected to.

3. You should state the ground(s) in support of your objection in this Notice. While not attempting to be exhaustive, the following are some examples:

- (a) the person whose registration as an elector, voter or authorized representative is being objected to is not a permanent resident of Hong Kong, does not ordinarily reside in Hong Kong or does not satisfy the age requirement, or the person or body does not possess the necessary qualifications for registration as an elector in the relevant functional constituency or a voter in the relevant subsector;
- (b) the person whose registration as an elector, voter or authorized representative is being objected to is disqualified from being registered as an elector for a geographical constituency for:
 - (i) having been found under the Mental Health Ordinance (Cap. 136) to be incapable, by reason of mental incapacity, of managing and administering his/her property and affairs; or
 - (ii) being a member of the armed forces of the Central People's Government or any other country or territory;
- (c) the person whose registration as an authorized representative is being objected to does not have a substantial connection with the corporate elector or corporate voter;
- (d) the body whose registration as an elector or voter is being objected to is disqualified from being registered as an elector or voter for:
 - (i) being a consular post to which any privilege or immunity is accorded under the Consular Relations Ordinance (Cap. 557); or

- (ii) being an organization to which section 2 of the International Organizations and Diplomatic Privileges Ordinance (Cap. 190) applies or an international organization defined in section 2 of the International Organizations (Privileges and Immunities) Ordinance (Cap. 558); or
- (iii) being a department or an agency of a government of a place outside the People's Republic of China, whether at national, regional or municipal level.

You must provide sufficient information about the objection so as to inform the Revising Officer, the Electoral Registration Officer and the person / body being objected to of the ground(s) of the objection.

- 4. You must provide a copy of this Notice and any written representations to the person / body being objected to. The information provided by you may also be provided to organizations / persons concerned for the purposes of voter registration, election and all related purposes where necessary.
- 5. “Principal residential address”, in relation to a person, means the address of the only or principal residence (within the meaning of section 28(1B) or (3) of the Legislative Council Ordinance (Cap. 542)) of that person.
- 6. You must deliver this Notice in person¹ to the office of the Electoral Registration Officer at the following address on or before 25 August 2026²:

Address:

8th Floor, Treasury Building,
3 Tonkin Street West,
Cheung Sha Wan,
Kowloon

or

29th Floor, Standard Chartered Tower,
Millennium City 1, 388 Kwun Tong Road,
Kwun Tong,
Kowloon

¹ If you are in custody within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Electoral Affairs Commission (Electoral Procedure) (Legislative Council) Regulation (Cap. 541D), you may deliver this Notice by post, through your penal institution or the relevant law enforcement agency, to the office of the Electoral Registration Officer. Being “in custody” means you are (a) serving a sentence of imprisonment, (b) detained by the Correctional Services Department on remand, or (c) otherwise detained by any law enforcement agency under any lawful authority. Law enforcement agency means (a) the Customs and Excise Department, (b) the Hong Kong Police Force, (c) the Immigration Department, (d) the Independent Commission Against Corruption, or (e) any other department of the Government of which any officer is empowered by any Ordinance to exercise a power of arrest.

² The deadline for lodging an objection regarding registration for functional constituencies / Election Committee subsectors is 25 August 2026 at 6 pm.

7. If the objector is a body, this Notice should be signed on its behalf by a responsible person of that body and must be delivered in person to the Electoral Registration Officer by that responsible person. A responsible person is a person authorized by a body for this purpose.
8. The Electoral Registration Officer may require you to identify yourself by presenting your Hong Kong identity card or passport. You should therefore bring your Hong Kong identity card or passport with you when you deliver this Notice.
9. The Electoral Registration Officer will forward your objection to the Revising Officer for his/her determination. The Revising Officer will be the Registrar of the High Court, or a magistrate or a legal officer appointed by the Chief Justice.
10. The Revising Officer will, by notice, inform you and the person / body being objected to of the date (which will be between 4 August 2026 and 11 September 2026 in respect of Notices received by the Electoral Registration Officer on or before 25 August 2026), time and place for holding a hearing as regards the objection to which the relevant Notice relates. You may appear in person at the hearing and make representations to the Revising Officer; or may be represented at the hearing by a legal practitioner or any other person (authorized in writing by you) who may make representations on your behalf. Whether or not you appear or are represented at the hearing, you may make representations in writing and submit them, by post or by hand, to the Revising Officer. The written representations should reach the Revising Officer on a date not later than 1 day before the date of the hearing. This arrangement also applies to the person / body being objected to.
11. Pursuant to section 2 of the Registration of Electors (Appeals) Regulation (Cap. 542B) and section 3 of the Election Committee (Registration) (Voters for Subsectors) (Members of Election Committee) (Appeals) Regulation (Cap. 569B), if the Electoral Registration Officer does not make representations to the Revising Officer at the hearing, and you (1) do not appear at the hearing; (2) are not represented by a legal practitioner or any other person (authorized in writing by you); and (3) do not make representations in writing to be received by the Revising Officer on a date not later than 1 day before the date of the hearing, the decision of the Electoral Registration Officer to which your Notice relates shall stand. If you do not appear at the hearing, and are not represented at the hearing by a legal practitioner or any other person (authorized in writing by you), the Revising Officer may make a ruling dismissing the objection, whether or not you have made representations in writing regarding the objection.
12. To facilitate the parties concerned to attend hearings and enable the relevant parties and members of the public to obtain information about the hearings as soon as possible, the Electoral Registration Officer will upload the relevant information in respect of your objection on this Office website (www.reo.gov.hk), including your name (i.e. the objector), the name of the person³ / body being objected to, the case number, date, time and place of hearing. The relevant information will be removed from this Office website after 11 September 2026.

13. Your objection may be determined without a hearing on the basis of written submissions only, when (1) the Notice of Objection does not state any ground on which the objection is made; (2) the Notice of Objection does not state a ground on which the objection is made that concerns your eligibility to be registered or registered particulars; or (3) the subject matter of the objection involves only a clerical error made in compiling or printing a provisional register of electors / voters [section 32 of Cap. 541B]. You or the person / body being objected to could request a review of the ruling if you or the person / body being objected to are not satisfied with the Revising Officer's ruling.
14. These notes are for general guidance only. You should also refer to the Electoral Affairs Commission Ordinance (Cap. 541), the Legislative Council Ordinance (Cap. 542), the Chief Executive Election Ordinance (Cap. 569) and the relevant subsidiary legislation. The relevant legislation can be found on the Hong Kong e-legislation website (www.elegislation.gov.hk) and is on sale at the Publications Sales Unit of the Information Services Department.
