Note:

- (1) This form may be returned by post to 13/F, Kowloonbay International Trade & Exhibition Centre, 1 Trademart Drive, Kowloon Bay, Kowloon or by FAX to 2891 1180.
- (2) Notes on Address Proof for Authorized Representative
 - (a) You will be allocated to the Legislative Council geographical constituency and the District Council constituency to which you belong according to your residential address which should be your only or principal residence in Hong Kong, i.e. a dwelling-place in Hong Kong at which you reside and which constitutes your sole or main home. The residential address will be provided to the candidates of the constituencies concerned for the purpose of sending election advertisement.
 - (b) The Registration and Electoral Office accepts the below documents issued within the last three months (date of receipt by the Registration and Electoral Office will be used as the form submission date), which bear the issuing date and the name of issuing organisation as a valid proof of address:
 - (i) One of the following documents bearing the elector's name and principal residential address (name and address printed on the document should be identical to those appeared on the application form)- 1. bills or invoices issued by public bodies (e.g. utility bills for water, electricity or town gas services); 2. correspondences from government departments or the judiciary; 3. statements or correspondences issued by banks, insurance companies or Mandatory Provident Fund Approved Trustees; 4. bills of landline telephone, mobile phone, paid television or internet services; 5. documents or bills issued by local post-secondary institutions which reliance can be placed on confirming the residential address of the elector; 6. valid and "stamped" (for stamp duty) tenancy agreement (the criterion of being issued within 3 months before the date of submitting the application/notification is not mandatory but such tenancy should cover the date of application); 7. bills, correspondences or other documents issued by public organisations such as the Hospital Authority, Hong Kong Housing Authority, Hong Kong Housing Society, Hong Kong Examinations and Assessment Authority, etc; or
 - (ii) Address proof bearing the name and residential address of the person residing with the elector, and a declaration signed by the elector to confirm that such other person is living with the elector at the same address above and that the attached address proof is a complete authentic copy or a complete true copy of the original. Sample of the declaration can be downloaded from the website of the Registration and Electoral Office (<http://www.reo.gov.hk/en/voter/dra.htm>); or
 - (iii) If the elector is not able to produce any documents listed at (i) or (ii) above, the Registration and Electoral Office will also accept a statutory declaration provided by the elector made before a Commissioner for Oaths/a practising solicitor/a Justice of the Peace to substantiate the claim of residing at the address by virtue of the Oaths and Declarations Ordinance. Free service for members of the public who need to make sworn declarations is available at District Offices. Sample of the statutory declarations can be downloaded from the website of the Registration and Electoral Office (<http://www.reo.gov.hk/en/voter/dra.htm>).
 - (c) The Registration and Electoral Office accepts the original copy, photocopy or fax copy of the abovementioned documents as valid proof of address.
 - (d) For electors who are the authorised occupants of public rental housing under the Housing Authority or registered residents in the tenancy of subsidised housing under the Hong Kong Housing Society applying for change of registered address, and that the addresses in the tenancy records match with the residential addresses provided by the electors, address proof requirement for such electors may be exempted. Attention: residents of housing units under the Home Ownership Scheme or public housing units which have been sold (e.g. flats under the Tenants Purchase Scheme) fall outside the scope of exemption and the electors concerned should provide valid address proofs accordingly. For cases where the Electoral Registration Officer cannot cross check an elector's particulars in the data matching with concerned department/organisation, the Electoral Registration Officer may request the elector to provide address proof when applying for change of registered address under section 10A of the Electoral Affairs Commission (Registration of Electors)(Legislative Council Geographical Constituencies)(District Council Constituencies) Regulation (Cap. 541A).
- (3) This application form must be signed by the authorized representative and responsible person and with authorization stamp of the body; otherwise, the Electoral Registration Officer will not process your application.
- (4) If you have not received any reply from the Registration and Electoral Office 14 days after submission of this form, you may call the Enquiry Hotline (2891 1001) to check the progress of your application.
- (5) You may check your latest registration particulars through Online Voter Information Enquiry System (www.voterinfo.gov.hk) or calling the Enquiry Hotline (2891 1001). Electors/voters have the responsibility to update their registration particulars with the Registration and Electoral Office if the particulars have changed.
- (6) Generally, persons who are disqualified from registration include persons who: (a) are found under the Mental Health Ordinance (Cap. 136) to be incapable, by reason of mental incapacity, of managing and administering their property and affairs; (b) are members of any armed forces and the authorized representative must have a substantial connection with that corporate elector/voter.
- (7) The information provided by you by means of this form will be used by the Registration and Electoral Office for voter registration and election-related purposes. Your provision of information in this form is voluntary. However, if you do not provide adequate and accurate data, the Registration and Electoral Office may not be able to process your application for registration. The information provided by you may be provided by the Registration and Electoral Office to other authorized departments/organisations/persons for the purposes of voter registration and election under relevant Ordinances and/or subsidiary legislations and purposes related thereto.
- (8) For imprisoned persons, please note the following:
 - (a) Registered address: Please complete Section 3(2) and/or 4(2) to state the scenario applicable to you. Address of penal institution will not be accepted as a residential address for registration as elector. When you fill in that section of the form:
 - if the first scenario is applicable and you are a registered elector/voter, and you wish to change your registered address, please enclose the relevant address proof requested; or
 - if the second scenario is applicable, please enclose the relevant proof requested; or
 - if the third scenario is applicable, and if you need to obtain the address furnished and last recorded under the Registration of Persons Regulations, please approach the Immigration Department. The request for information should be addressed to: Executive Officer (Registration of Persons) Support, 12/F, Immigration Tower, 7 Gloucester Road, Wan Chai, Hong Kong. (If you need any assistance, you may contact the Electoral Registration Officer.)
 - (b) Correspondence address: You may choose to provide the address of the penal institution where you are imprisoned or other address in the application form as your correspondence address. The correspondence address will be provided to candidates for the purpose of sending election-related materials to the electors concerned. If you choose to use the address of a penal institution as your correspondence address, you are advised to provide the prisoner number for easy transmission of the election-related materials within/among the penal institutions.
 - (c) Action required for an imprisoned person upon his release in future: If you use your last dwelling-place in Hong Kong at which you resided or the address last recorded under the Registration of Persons Regulations as the registered address, you have to report your new residential address to the Electoral Registration Officer by completing the "Report on Change of Particulars by an Elector in a Geographical Constituency" (REO-2) with your address proof as soon as possible after you have served the sentence of imprisonment and left the penal institution. Otherwise, the Electoral Registration Officer will put your name into the omissions list according to the procedures prescribed in the relevant legislation. If you do not update your record by providing your new principal residential address with relevant address proof before the statutory deadline, your name will be removed from the final register.
